Majestic Hotel

WELCOME

Roy Cooper, Managing Director of Professional Security Magazine, welcomes you to Security TWENTY 18 North here at the Majestic Hotel in Harrogate. We have planned the day so that you can enjoy some excellent presentations from key industry people that are involved with the changing world in which we live. Whatever your subject of expertise, there should be something in the presentations for you to learn and leave feeling better informed. I would like to thank firstly exhibitors who have made the day possible with their contributions, and a special thanks to our sponsors Anixter, Hanwha Techwin, Hikvision, Seagate, CSL Dualcom, IFSEC International and Netvu. Please take the time to visit their stands as they too have new innovations you may not have seen before. I also would especially like to thank our key note speakers for taking the time out of their busy days to come and share their knowledge with you, but more to the point I would like to thank you for coming along. I hope you have a great day and look forward to welcoming you to our next event.

NOMINATED CHARITY

As you may know, we aim to raise funds for local charities at each of our events and are especially keen to support charities which are close to the hearts of our exhibitors and delegates.

At Security TWENTY 18 North we will be raising funds for The Rainbow Fund is a group of Mums and a Dad in Harrogate wanting to make a difference, all of whom have been affected in some way by prematurity, illness and life limiting conditions in their children.

SPEAKERS

Ron Gregory - National Association for Healthcare Security

Ron first came in to contact with Healthcare Security when deploying to Afghanistan where he trained NHS staff (who were mobilised as Reservists) to work at Bastion Field Hospital and mentoring Afghan National Army Medical staff. He trained and advised staff at all levels in personal protection and security. Whilst serving in the Army Ron specialised in a number of security areas, notably surveillance and reconnaissance and was one of the lead instructors responsible for the establishment of the Helmand Police Training Centre in Helmand.

Following his last tour he left the services (for a second time) and combining his previous security, training and management skill set assumed the post of Security Management Trainer at an Acute Trust in the East Midlands on a 1 year contract where he brought CRT compliance up dramatically and, once out of special measures, turned his focus on to implementing CRT (Refresher), training the in house security staff and also developed a two-tier Lone Worker training package. As well as completing the NHS Protect CRT Fam Sem, he holds the City & Guilds qualifications in delivering Conflict Management, and Physical Intervention Training. After a spell of diversification, working in the wider Estates & Facilities directorate as Compliance Manager, Ron now works at a large acute NHS Trust in the North of England where he is employed as the Security Manager.

A keen interest in personal and professional development Ron holds a degree in Protective Security Management from Bucks New University and is currently studying for his MSc Organisational Resilience. He maintains his SIA frontline licence (Close Protection and CCTV) and conducts quality assurance for private security providers and in 2016-17 was a Standards Verifier (SV) for Pearson Group (BTEC and EdExcel). He is a Member of the Security Institute (MSyI), the Chartered Management Institute (MCMI), the Emergency Planning Society (EPS) and is a Specialist Member of the International Institute for Risk and Safety Management (SIIRSM). Since November 2015, Ron has held a voluntary position as executive director (currently without portfolio) with the National Association for Healthcare Security (NAHS).
