WELCOME

Roy Cooper, Managing Director of Professional Security Magazine, welcomes you to Security TWENTY 19 Birmingham here at the Hilton Metropole Hotel at the NEC Birmingham. We have planned the day so that you can enjoy some excellent presentations from key industry people that are involved with the changing world in which we live. Whatever your subject of expertise, there should be something in the presentations for you to learn and leave feeling better informed. I would like to thank firstly exhibitors who have made the day possible with their contributions, and a special thanks to our sponsors Hikvision, Seagate, Norbain, Security Dynamics, CSL Dualcom, and IFSEC International. Please take the time to visit their stands as they too have new innovations you may not have seen before. I also would especially like to thank our key note speakers for taking the time out of their busy days to come and share their knowledge with you, but more to the point I would like to thank you for coming along. I hope you have a great day and look forward to welcoming you to our next event.

NOMINATED CHARITY

As you may know, we aim to raise funds for local charities at each of our events and are especially keen to support charities which are close to the hearts of our exhibitors and delegates.

At Security TWENTY 19 Birmingham we will be raising funds for DKMS which is a non-profit organisation that works to raise awareness of the need for donors for hematopoietic stem cell transplantation, which people with blood cancers need for treatment. This charity is currently supporting Ian Witham of Gratte Brothers.

SPEAKERS

Nicole Vazquez - Worthwhile Training

Nicole is the founder of Worthwhile Training and has over 20 years experience assisting organisations with practical advice to manage the risks associated with employees' personal safety, security and wellbeing. She works with organisations in many sectors to design, implement and embed control measures and training solutions to achieve measurable results.

Nicole is also the organiser of the Lone Worker Safety Expo Conference. The only UK event which brings together experts in managing the safety, security and wellbeing risks of lone workers.

Tony Porter - Surveillance Camera Commissioner

Tony Porter is the Surveillance Camera Commissioner for England and Wales. His experience spans community and business engagement, international counter terrorism and serious and organised crime. Tony provides direction and leadership in the surveillance camera community by encouraging compliance with the surveillance camera code of practice.

The main issue occupying his regulatory focus is the growing capabilities and appetite for use of increasingly intrusive technologies integrated with surveillance camera systems in society. He has been at the forefront of the debate on automated facial recognition and has devoted himself to ensuring that it is used transparently and legitimately. His National Surveillance Camera Strategy has succeeded in raising industry standards.

SPEAKERS

Michael White - G4S Secure Solutions

Mike is the Head of Risk, Compliance and Assurance (UK, Ireland and Islands) for G4S Secure Solutions Ltd. With twenty years industry experience and a background in operational management that includes critical national infrastructure sites, blue chip city clients and diplomatic clients across a range of industry sectors Mike moved into compliance and risk management five years ago initially as a consultant and latterly with G4S. His experience includes working in the Middle East and he regularly chairs and presents at conferences both in the UK and in Europe. In addition to his G4S role Mike is a volunteer Director at the Security Institute, a former Chairman of IPSA and a member of The Court of Assistants within The Worshipful Company of Security Professionals. He currently also Chairs the working group at the British Standards Institute reviewing BS 7499, is a member of the group reviewing BS 7858 and is working with the Security Industry Authority as a member of the team reviewing the licence linked training requirements for the security industry.

His spare time is taken up with his allotment and as a frustrated Southampton FC supporter and an equally frustrated supporter of the French national rugby team.

Alex Carmichael - SSAIB

Alex Carmichael is the Chief Executive of the UK and Ireland's leading fire, security and telecare certification body, SSAIB, which now has some 1700 registered firms.

Alex joined SSAIB from the BSIA, where he was Director of Technical Services and Exports and his duties on various UK and European committees are helped by his strong technical background and close working relationship with a variety of industry organisations.

SPEAKERS

Mike Hurst - The Security Commonwealth

The Security Commonwealth is an umbrella organisation of independent membership bodies across the security industry. It provides a forum to consult and co-operate in the common interest and in the promotion of professionalism, good practice and information sharing to enhance UK security. The Security Commonwealth aims to be the all-inclusive industry advocate on security issues in the UK, to create lasting networks and alliances and to promote and lead the security industry with a single voice.

Membership includes most of the major security membership organisations in the UK, such as ASIS UK, the Security Institute, the International Professional Security Association, the Association of Security Consultants, the Institute of Private Investigators, and the Cross-sector Security and Safety Communications. Other members include the National Security Inspectorate, the British Security Industry Association, the Royal United Services Institute, Crime Prevention Associations, Project Griffin, National Cyber Security Alliance and London First Resilience Network. Sector based membership organisations include Sister Banks, the Pharmaceutical Industry Security Forum (PISF), the National Association for Healthcare Security, the British Institute of Facilities Management and many other organisations covering all security disciplines including counter terrorism, physical security, personnel security and cyber security.

Mike Hurst, CPP, has spent almost 30 years in the security and fire profession, 25 of which have been as a specialist recruitment consultant with HJA Fire and Security where he is a director, dealing with a wide range of clients and roles. He is Vice Chairman of the UK Chapter of ASIS International and serves on its European Advisory Council. He is also currently a Member of the BSI GW/3 Committee. He is a Fellow of the Institute of Recruitment Professionals and was awarded the ASIS President's Award of Merit for his services to security in the UK and Europe.
