Red Cow Moran Hotel, Dublin

WELCOME

Roy Cooper, Managing Director of Professional Security Magazine, welcomes you to Security TWENTY 19 Dublin here at the Red Cow Moran Hotel in Dublin. We have planned the day so that you can enjoy some excellent presentations from key industry people that are involved with the changing world in which we live. Whatever your subject of expertise, there should be something in the presentations for you to learn and leave feeling better informed. I would like to thank firstly exhibitors who have made the day possible with their contributions, and a special thanks to our sponsors IFSEC International, Hikvision, Seagate, CSL Dualcom, Axis Communications and Security Dynamics. Please take the time to visit their stands as they too have new innovations you may not have seen before. I also would especially like to thank our key note speakers for taking the time out of their busy days to come and share their knowledge with you, but more to the point I would like to thank you for coming along. I hope you have a great day and look forward to welcoming you to our next event.

NOMINATED CHARITY

As you may know, we aim to raise funds for local charities at each of our events and are especially keen to support charities which are close to the hearts of our exhibitors and delegates.

At Security TWENTY 19 Dublin we are raising funds for the Little Blue Heroes Foundation which is a not-for-profit charity operated entirely by volunteers (no paid staff) made up of Garda members/staff, retired Garda members, their families, friends and civic minded people from communities. It aims to help families in need from local communities in Ireland who have children undergoing long-term medical treatment for serious illness

For more information about the charity visit: www.littleblueheroes.org

SPEAKERS

Paul Scallan - Private Security Authority

Paul has been Chief Executive of the PSA for the past 5 years having previously headed the PSA's Contractor Division. He is a career Civil Servant having worked in a number of Government Departments including the Department of Social Protection and the Revenue Commissioners.

During his time as Chief Executive, Paul has overseen the expansion of PSA licensing, improvements in compliance activity and the development of new standards and qualifications for licence holders.

Mick Neville - Super Recogniser's International

Mike Neville MCSFS is the world expert at catching criminals with CCTV or surveillance cameras. He is the Chief Executive Officer of Super Recognisers International Ltd and the Managing Director of Neville Forensic Recognition Ltd. At New Scotland Yard (the headquarters of London's Metropolitan Police), he was the Detective Chief Inspector in charge of solving crimes with CCTV. He also set up the world's first "Super Recogniser Unit" using officers with fantastic, innate, face memory skills to identify offenders and link crimes by the images. This work is now being replicated across the world. Having retired from the Met in 2017, Mike works closely with academic partners to further develop the Super Recogniser tactic for the private sector. He advises governments on developing end-to-end CCTV systems, to ensure that images can be used by police, lawyers and courts and result in offenders being brought to justice. He is the only member of the Chartered Society of Forensic Sciences, who is an expert on Super Recognisers. Mike is also on the Forensics Committee of the International Association of Chiefs of Police and is a member of the UK National Association of Surveillance Camera Managers. Mick can be contacted via mike.neville@superrecognisersinternational.com or info@nevilleforensicrecognition.com or +44 7415 634 613

Biography to follow

Mike Gillespie - Advent IM

Mike is an experienced, senior information security and data protection practitioner of many years' standing. He is well versed in the threat to organisational information assets. Having been a member of the CSCIS Global Cyber Security Select Committee for some time, he is now the Vice President of C3i Group on cyber security, cybercrime and cyber intelligence. He assists the organisation in continuing to promote thought leadership and awareness to a global audience on the current threats to organisational information assets emanating from cyberspace. Mike serves as a cyber spokesperson for the International Institute of Risk and Safety Management (IIRSM) and also as the Cyber Security lead adviser for the UK Government's Surveillance Camera Commissioner.

Mike is recently retired from the board of the Security Institute where he served as Director for Cyber Strategy & Research for several years. As a subject matter expert Mike is called upon regularly to speak at events and contribute editorial, including for the BBC and The Sunday Times as well as regular cyber and physical security and technology industry media. He is also part of the editorial board for Professional Security Magazine, a regular speaker at key events such as Security & Policing, IFSEC, SCTX and International Security Expo.

SPEAKERS

Michael White - G4S Secure Solutions

With twenty years industry experience and a background in operational management that includes critical national infrastructure sites, blue chip city clients and diplomatic clients across a range of industry sectors Mike moved into compliance and risk management five years ago initially as a consultant and latterly with G4S. His experience includes working in the Middle East and he regularly chairs and presents at conferences both in the UK and in Europe.

In addition to his G4S role Mike was a volunteer Director at the Security Institute, a former Chairman of IPSA and a member of The Court of Assistants within The Worshipful Company of Security Professionals. He currently also chairs the working group at the British Standards Institute reviewing BS 7499, is a member of the group reviewing BS 7858 and is working with the Security Industry Authority as a member of the team reviewing the licence linked training requirements for the security industry. His spare time is taken up with his allotment and as a frustrated Southampton FC supporter and an equally frustrated supporter of the French national rugby team.
